Invocation - Confession and Absolution p184 ff

Service of the Word

Introit Ps. 119:1, 38-40; antiphon: Liturgical Text

- P The whole world is | in your power,*
O Lord, King Almighty, no one can | gainsay you.
- C For you have made | heaven and earth,*
you are | Lord of all!
- P Blessèd are those whose way is | blameless,*
who walk in the law | of the LORD!
- C Confirm to your servant your | promise,*
that you | may be feared.
- P Turn away the reproach | that I dread,*
for your just de- | crees are good.
- C Behold, I long for your | precepts,*
in your righteousness | give me life!
- C Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.
- P The whole world is | in your power,*
O Lord, King Almighty, no one can | gainsay you.
- C For you have made | heaven and earth,*
you are | Lord of all!

Gloria in Excelsis

Salutation and Collect of the Day

P Let us pray.
O Lord, keep Your household, the Church, in continual godliness that through Your protection she may be free from all adversities and devoutly given to serve You in good works; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Old Testament Reading

Epistle

Ephesians 6:10–17

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God,

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Alleluia

Holy Gospel

John 4:46–54

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the fourth chapter.

C Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

So he came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water wine. And at Capernaum there was an official whose son was ill. When this man heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went to him and asked him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. So Jesus said to him, “Unless you see signs and wonders you will not believe.” The official said to him, “Sir, come down before my child dies.” Jesus said to him, “Go; your son will live.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and went on his way. As he was going down, his servants met him and told him that his son was recovering. So he asked them the hour when he began to get better, and they said to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.” The father knew that was the hour when Jesus had said to him, “Your son will live.” And he himself believed, and all his household. This was now the second sign that Jesus did when he had come from Judea to Galilee.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise be to Thee, O Christ.
